PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MADISON . . . The Department of Regulation and Licensing announced that the following disciplinary orders were issued in January 2004.

Karen Cejka, Oscala, FL – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing accepted the surrender of Karen Cejka's license. The Board found that in 1999 Cejka performed an initial assessment on an inmate at Milwaukee county jail. The inmate informed Cejka that he was diabetic; he had high blood pressure; he was on medication for both conditions; and that he had been binge drinking for a week prior to his arrest and had been on hunger strike. Cejka failed to notify or consult with a physician regarding the symptoms or condition of the inmate. Cejka has retired from the practice of nursing. [LS0401153NUR]

Michelle Donar, Bloomington – License Practical Nurse. The Board of Nursing suspended the license of Michelle Donar and granted a stay of suspension conditioned upon compliance with limitations ordered by the board, including rehabilitation, monitoring, and treatment. While on duty at Orchard Manor Nursing Home, Donar submitted to a breath test for the presence of alcohol in her system which resulted in 0.11% by weight. [LS0401154NUR]

William Faber, Milwaukee – Medicine and Surgery. Following a hearing, the Medical Examining Board ordered William Faber to undergo an evaluation by the American College of Osteopathic Pain Management and Sclerotherapy and submit the results to the board within six months. If the evaluation results in recommendations for continuing education, Faber shall complete such requirements within two years. [LS0211222MED]

Patricia Lammers, Sheboygan – Real Estate Broker. The Real Estate Board reprimanded Patricia Lammers and ordered her to pay $300 in costs, $350 in forfeiture, and complete the Trust Accounts, Escrow, and Closing Statement module, and the Financial and Office Management module from the 36 hour pre-licensing real estate broker's course. Lammers failed to adequately maintain the trust account ledger, failed to do the required monthly trial balances and validations, and failed to maintain sufficient funds in the trust account. [LS0401222REB]

Eriberto Malacara, Racine – Real Estate Broker; CPAD Group LLC, Racine – Real Estate Business Entity. The Real Estate Board limited the license of Eriberto Malacara and reprimanded CPAD Group LLC. Malacara continued to work after his license expired, failed to complete a Buyer Agency/Tenant Representation agreement with a client, failed to disclose his interest in CPAD Group LLC, failed to correctly enter trust account ledger and Journal entries, improperly disbursed trust funds not related to the sale of real estate, failed to do required trust account monthly reconciliations, trial balances, and validation, failed to provide the Department of Regulation and Licensing with a written notice of the opening of a new trust account and the closing of an old trust account, issued checks from CPAD which contained insufficient funds, negligently commingled $1,562 of business account funds with CPAD Group trust account funds and failed to disburse trust funds. Malacara was ordered to pay $5,000 in partial costs and $500 in forfeiture. [LS0401221REB]

Gregg Seyler, Racine – Dentistry. The Dentistry Examining Board suspended the license of Gregg Seyler and ordered him to pay $1,850.86 in costs. Seyler has an alcohol abuse problem that impairs his ability to practice dentistry. Dr. Seyler shall participate in a drug and alcohol treatment program approved by the Board. He shall also undergo an assessment of his competence to practice dentistry at the Marquette University School of Dentistry and satisfactorily complete a remedial education program if areas of deficiency are identified. Upon a showing that Dr. Seyler can safely return to the practice of dentistry, the Board may stay his suspension for three month intervals. [LS0401072DEN]

Alan Spaeth, Tomahawk – Dentistry. The Dentistry Examining Board accepted the surrender of Alan Spaeth's license and ordered him to pay $6,045.46 in costs. Spaeth failed to completely remove patients' existing restoration materials and decay before placing new composite restorations, failed to do certain periodontal examinations, and failed to properly place and shape composite restorations. [LS0310221DEN]

Rebecca Swenson, Appleton – Dentist. The Dentistry Examining Board reprimanded and limited the license of Rebecca Swenson. She was also ordered to complete an approved course of training in record keeping and crown and bridge work, and to pay $2,024.09 in costs. Swenson failed to obtain periodontal data on a patient, despite her finding of generalized early periodontitis. She also failed to adequately and competently fit and place crowns which resulted in open contacts, thereby causing food compaction with the potential for infection and bone loss. [LS0401073DEN]

Donald Turner, Neenah – Medicine and Surgery. The Medical Examining Board reprimanded Donald Turner and ordered him to complete continuing education in the interpretation of CT scans with an emphasis on vascular findings. Turner read a CT scan as demonstrating secular aortic aneurysm but did not read it as leaking. Five days later the patient died. An autopsy determined the cause of death to be the rupture of the abdominal aortic aneurysm. Dr. Turner retired from the practice of medicine in September 2001. Turner was also ordered to pay $947.32 in costs. [LS0401211MED]

Paul Venema, Delevan – Private Detective; Am-Kor Agency, Delevan – Private Detective Agency. The Department of Regulation and Licensing accepted the surrender of Paul Venema's license as well as Am-Kor Agency's license. Venema, the sole proprietor of Am-Kor, failed to inform the Department of Regulation and Licensing of his misdemeanor and felony convictions which occurred before and after applying for a license. [LS0401052RAL]

Bruce Walley, Minocqua – Registered Nurse. The Board of Nursing accepted the surrender of Bruce Walley's license. Walley continued to work after a previous disciplinary action against him resulted in the suspension of his license. [LS0311071NUR]

Eugene Weber, Appleton – Dentistry. The Dentistry Examining Board reprimanded Eugene Weber. He was also ordered to complete continuing education in the area of dental professional responsibility and dental practice risk management, and to pay $2,750 in costs. Dr. Weber failed to recognize, diagnose, and treat periodontal conditions in a number of long-time patients. He also failed to exercise reasonable supervision of his dental hygienist. [LS0401074DEN]

David White, Cincinnati, OH – Pharmacist. The Pharmacy Examining Board suspended the license of David White and ordered him to pay $100 in costs. White was previously disciplined by the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy after setting up a false patient profile and creating false and/or knowingly possessing a false or forged prescription. White shall not renew or attempt to renew his license in the state of Wisconsin until he has fully complied with the terms of the Ohio State Board of Pharmacy order and has an unrestricted license in the state of Ohio. [LS0401147PHM]
